

CollabQuote Terms of Use

Effective date: September 16, 2026

These Terms of Use (“Terms”) govern use of CollabQuote - UGC Brand Deal Pricing & Rights Toolkit (“CollabQuote” or the “Product”).

For these Terms, “Seller” means the creator or supplier identified on the CollabQuote Gumroad product page and the purchaser’s Gumroad receipt. “You” means the purchaser or authorized user of CollabQuote.

By purchasing, downloading, installing, activating, or using CollabQuote, you agree to these Terms, the CollabQuote Software License, Refund Policy, Updates Policy, and Privacy Policy.

If you do not agree, do not install or use the Product.

1. Product purpose

CollabQuote is software intended to help creators organize brand-deal information, create configurable pricing estimates, review entered commercial terms, prepare negotiation responses and quotes, generate invoices, track payments and rights dates, maintain simple creator-business records, and perform other related workflow functions described in the Product.

CollabQuote does not promise or determine a universally correct market rate.

Creator rates can vary by creator, audience, niche, experience, production quality, deliverables, usage, advertising rights, exclusivity, territory, campaign, client, geography, timing, negotiation, and other factors.

Pricing assumptions in CollabQuote are configurable starting points. You remain responsible for deciding what to charge and what terms to accept.

2. No legal, tax, accounting, financial, or investment advice

CollabQuote is not a law firm, lawyer, accountant, tax preparer, financial adviser, investment adviser, payroll provider, or escrow service.

The Product does not:

- review or approve contracts;
- determine whether contract language is legally enforceable;
- determine your legal rights or obligations;
- determine whether an expense is tax deductible;
- prepare, file, or certify a tax return;
- determine your actual tax liability;
- provide payroll withholding;
- guarantee that an invoice satisfies every legal, tax, or accounting requirement in every jurisdiction;

- guarantee payment from a brand or customer.

Commercial-term flags identify information you entered that may deserve attention. They are not a legal contract review.

Tax set-aside features are estimates based on entered data and disclosed assumptions. Actual tax obligations may differ materially.

You should obtain qualified professional advice when legal, tax, accounting, or financial advice is needed.

3. Gumroad purchase relationship

CollabQuote is distributed through Gumroad.

For qualifying digital-product transactions, Gumroad acts as merchant of record/reseller under Gumroad's then-current terms. Gumroad handles checkout, payment processing, transaction records, applicable indirect taxes collected at checkout, receipts, and refund/dispute processes within Gumroad's system.

Your Gumroad transaction may also be subject to Gumroad's Terms and Privacy Policy.

Nothing in these Terms limits any non-waivable right you have against Gumroad or the Seller under applicable law.

4. License to use CollabQuote

Your right to use the Product is governed by the separate CollabQuote Software License, which is incorporated into these Terms.

Unless a different license is expressly stated at purchase, a standard individual CollabQuote purchase permits one purchaser to use the Product on up to two active computers at a time.

The license is a license to use the software, not a sale or transfer of the software's intellectual-property rights.

5. Activation

Certain CollabQuote releases may require online activation using the license key supplied with the Gumroad purchase.

Initial activation may require an internet connection. After successful activation, the Product is designed for ordinary offline use.

The Seller may reasonably limit simultaneous activations, reject invalid or refunded licenses, and suspend or revoke activation where the Seller reasonably determines that a license has been refunded, charged back, fraudulently obtained, publicly shared, materially abused, or used in material breach of the Software License.

A temporary activation-service outage is not intended to prevent normal use of an already activated valid installation.

6. Your responsibilities

You are responsible for:

- entering accurate information;
- reviewing quotes, invoices, dates, calculations, exports, and generated text before relying on or sending them;
- deciding whether a commercial deal is appropriate for you;
- obtaining professional advice when needed;
- complying with tax, business-registration, invoicing, consumer, advertising, endorsement, intellectual-property, privacy, and other laws that apply to your activities;
- maintaining backups of important business records;
- protecting your computer, Vault password, exported files, and payment information;
- ensuring that you have authority to store or process information about brands, clients, contacts, or other persons that you enter into CollabQuote.

7. Generated and calculated output

CollabQuote performs calculations and creates deterministic text from information and assumptions supplied by you or included in the Product.

You must review output before using it.

The Seller does not warrant that:

- any pricing estimate will be accepted by a brand;
- any pricing assumption represents an official industry rate;
- generated negotiation language will produce a particular result;
- any commercial term flagged by the Product is legally invalid;
- any term not flagged by the Product is legally safe;
- any tax set-aside amount equals your tax liability;
- any rights or renewal date is correct if the underlying dates or assumptions are incomplete or inaccurate.

8. Local data and backups

CollabQuote is designed to store primary business data locally.

Local storage can still be lost because of device failure, operating-system damage, profile deletion, storage corruption, malware, accidental deletion, or other events.

You are responsible for maintaining backups appropriate to the importance of your records.

The Seller is not a custodian, bank, accounting firm, or archival service for your local CollabQuote data.

9. Payment-method information

CollabQuote may allow you to save and display selected payment instructions or payment methods on quotes or invoices.

You are responsible for confirming that information is accurate and for choosing which information is appropriate to disclose to a customer.

The Seller is not responsible for transfers sent to incorrect information entered by you, payment-provider outages, bank delays, fraud by third parties, or customer payment failures.

10. Acceptable use

You may not:

- share, publish, sell, sublicense, rent, lease, or transfer your license key or activation token except as expressly permitted by the Software License;
- provide unauthorized third parties with copies of the Product;
- use one individual license as a multi-user team license;
- circumvent, disable, tamper with, or intentionally defeat license or activation controls;
- use the Product to violate law or the rights of others;
- introduce malicious code into a distributed copy of CollabQuote or falsely represent a modified copy as an official Seller release;
- use Seller trademarks or branding in a way that falsely implies sponsorship, endorsement, or authorship.

Nothing in this section prohibits activity that applicable law expressly gives you a non-waivable right to perform, including legally protected interoperability or security-research activity where applicable.

11. Intellectual property

CollabQuote, including its original source code, interface, design, text, branding, documentation, pricing-engine structure, and other original Product materials, is owned by or licensed to the Seller and is protected by applicable intellectual-property laws.

Your purchase does not transfer ownership of those rights.

You retain your rights in business information and content that you create and enter into CollabQuote.

12. Third-party services

CollabQuote may interoperate with or rely on third-party services or software, including Gumroad, operating-system components, browsers/WebView components, email applications, calendar applications, payment providers selected by you, or open-source libraries.

Third-party services are governed by their own terms and may change or become unavailable.

The Seller is not responsible for a third party's independent acts, policies, outages, fees, or data handling.

13. Updates and compatibility

Updates are governed by the CollabQuote Updates Policy.

The Seller may correct bugs, change workflows, add or remove features, modify security measures, update calculations or assumptions, or change compatibility requirements in later versions.

Purchase of CollabQuote does not guarantee any particular future feature, update schedule, operating-system lifetime, third-party compatibility period, or cloud service.

14. Refunds

Refunds are governed by the CollabQuote Refund Policy and applicable Gumroad procedures.

A full refund terminates the refunded software license. After a full refund, you must stop using and distributing copies of the refunded Product and the related license may be deactivated or revoked.

Nothing in the Refund Policy or these Terms limits rights that cannot legally be waived.

15. Disclaimer of warranties

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, COLLABQUOTE IS PROVIDED “AS IS” AND “AS AVAILABLE.”

THE SELLER DISCLAIMS IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, AND NON-INFRINGEMENT TO THE EXTENT THOSE WARRANTIES MAY LAWFULLY BE DISCLAIMED.

THE SELLER DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE PRODUCT WILL BE ERROR-FREE, UNINTERRUPTED, COMPATIBLE WITH EVERY DEVICE OR OPERATING-SYSTEM VERSION, OR SUITABLE FOR EVERY BUSINESS, LEGAL, TAX, OR ACCOUNTING REQUIREMENT.

SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW CERTAIN WARRANTY DISCLAIMERS. IN THAT CASE, THIS SECTION APPLIES ONLY TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW.

16. Limitation of liability

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE SELLER WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, OR FOR LOST PROFITS, LOST REVENUE, LOST BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, LOST DATA, LOST GOODWILL, OR THE COST OF SUBSTITUTE SERVICES, ARISING FROM OR RELATED TO COLLABQUOTE.

TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE SELLER’S AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE PRODUCT WILL NOT EXCEED THE AMOUNT ACTUALLY PAID FOR THE COLLABQUOTE LICENSE GIVING RISE TO THE CLAIM.

THESE LIMITATIONS DO NOT APPLY TO LIABILITY THAT CANNOT LAWFULLY BE LIMITED OR EXCLUDED, INCLUDING ANY RIGHTS OR REMEDIES THAT APPLICABLE CONSUMER LAW MAKES NON-WAIVABLE.

17. Indemnity for misuse

To the extent permitted by applicable law, if you use CollabQuote on behalf of a business or for commercial purposes, you agree to indemnify and hold the Seller harmless from third-party claims, liabilities, damages, and reasonable costs arising directly from your unlawful use of the Product, your infringement of another person's rights, or business content you enter, publish, or send using the Product.

This section does not require you to indemnify the Seller for the Seller's own unlawful conduct or liability that cannot be shifted under applicable law.

18. Suspension and termination

The Seller may suspend or terminate a license for material breach of these Terms or the Software License, fraud, chargeback or refund of the purchase, unauthorized redistribution, or intentional circumvention of license controls.

Where reasonably practicable, termination of the software license will not be used to prevent you from retrieving customer-owned local business data. The Seller may permit read-only access or exports where technically available.

Sections that by their nature should survive termination—including intellectual-property, warranty, liability, and accrued-payment provisions—survive.

19. Changes to these Terms

The Seller may update these Terms for future Product versions, legal compliance, security, fraud prevention, or material changes in Product operation.

The effective date will be updated when the Terms change.

Material changes do not retroactively take away the core perpetual software-use rights already granted for a paid version, except where necessary to comply with law, enforce a valid termination, address fraud/abuse, or protect security.

20. Applicable law and mandatory consumer rights

These Terms are subject to the law that validly applies to the transaction and the parties.

Nothing in these Terms selects a forum, waives a non-waivable consumer right, or prevents a consumer from relying on mandatory protections that apply in the consumer's place of residence.

If a provision is unenforceable, it will be enforced to the maximum lawful extent and the remaining provisions will remain in effect.

21. Entire agreement

These Terms, together with the Software License, Refund Policy, Updates Policy, Privacy Policy, the applicable Gumroad purchase terms, and any written terms expressly presented at purchase, form the agreement governing use of CollabQuote.

If a special written license or offer expressly conflicts with the standard Software License, the specific written term controls only to the extent of that conflict.

22. Contact

Questions about CollabQuote may be sent to the Seller by replying to the Gumroad purchase receipt or using the Seller contact method displayed on the CollabQuote Gumroad product page.
